

Your Own Doodles

Now draw your own graphs. You want to draw three different graphs:

- One that cannot be traced
- One that is traceable and starts and finishes at the same spot
- One that is traceable and starts and finishes at different spots

When you're done drawing your graphs, share them with a neighbor. Let them guess which of the graphs are traceable and which are not, then they verify their guesses by trying to trace them on their own.