

For each ladder, write each letter under the post where it ends up when it gets to the bottom of the ladder.

Remember: Letters climb down the post they're on until they reach a rung. When a letter reaches a rung, it must turn and cross the rung to the other post, then continue climbing down the new post.

Try making your own ladders! What order do the letters end up in at the bottom?

